COMMENTS

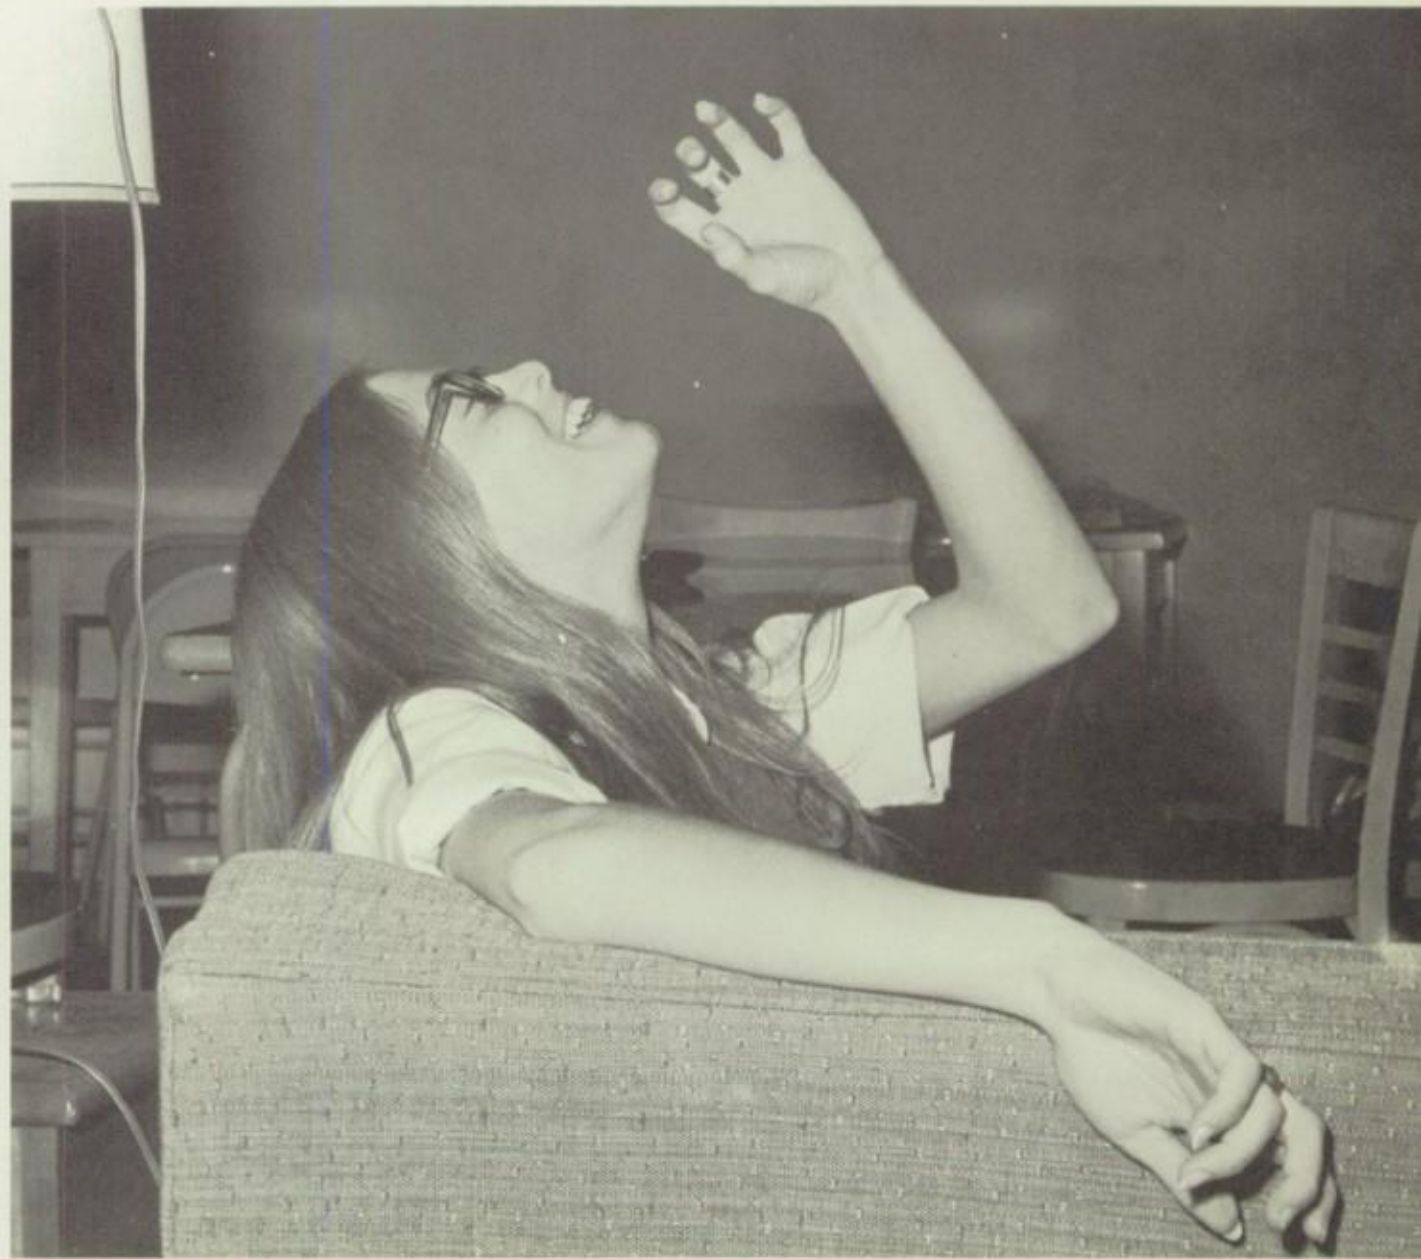

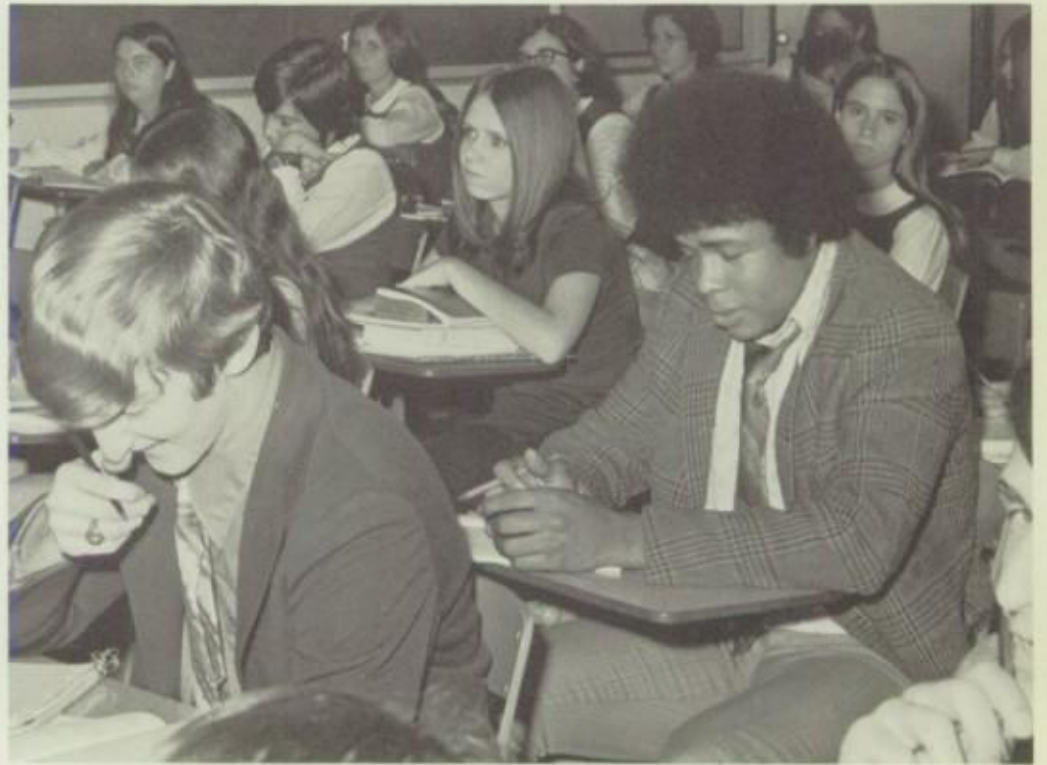

Following the example of our student council, we have chosen BEGINNINGS as our theme. For most of us, this year has been a beginning. The Seniors are awaiting a new start on life and the underclassmen are taking on new responsibilities.

Perhaps the most outstanding beginning at York Catholic is our new Principal, Father Waldron. To him, we wish to give our vote of confidence and trust. For everyone else, we wish to give all the joys of remembering the year of '71-'72.

Administration

With the return of Father Waldron, Y.C. experiences another beginning. This year Father Waldron along with Mr. Forjan and the perseverant efforts of Sister Canuta and Mr. Corbo, brought mod scheduling of age.

FACULTY

GUIDANCE:

Mr. Hlavacik did much to help the members of the Class of '72 find their place in life. His Co-Director, Sister Wilda, provided sound counseling for many of Y.C.'s students.

Guidance

Religion

The Religion department attempted to find itself through more innovations. Among these changes were the elective religion courses for juniors and seniors, and a new freshman and sophomore curriculum.

Proficiency in our language and literature is a prerequisite for learning in any area. Y.C.'s English department boasts comprehensive courses on all four levels. Much of our English study is facilitated by Y.C.'s fine library.

Courses in Spanish, Latin, French and German bring to Y.C. students a better understanding of our neighbors abroad, as well as solid preparation for further study.

Foreign Languages

Business Education

The Business department is without a doubt one of YC's strong points. Students who plan to enter the business world enjoy top-notch preparation.

Home Economics

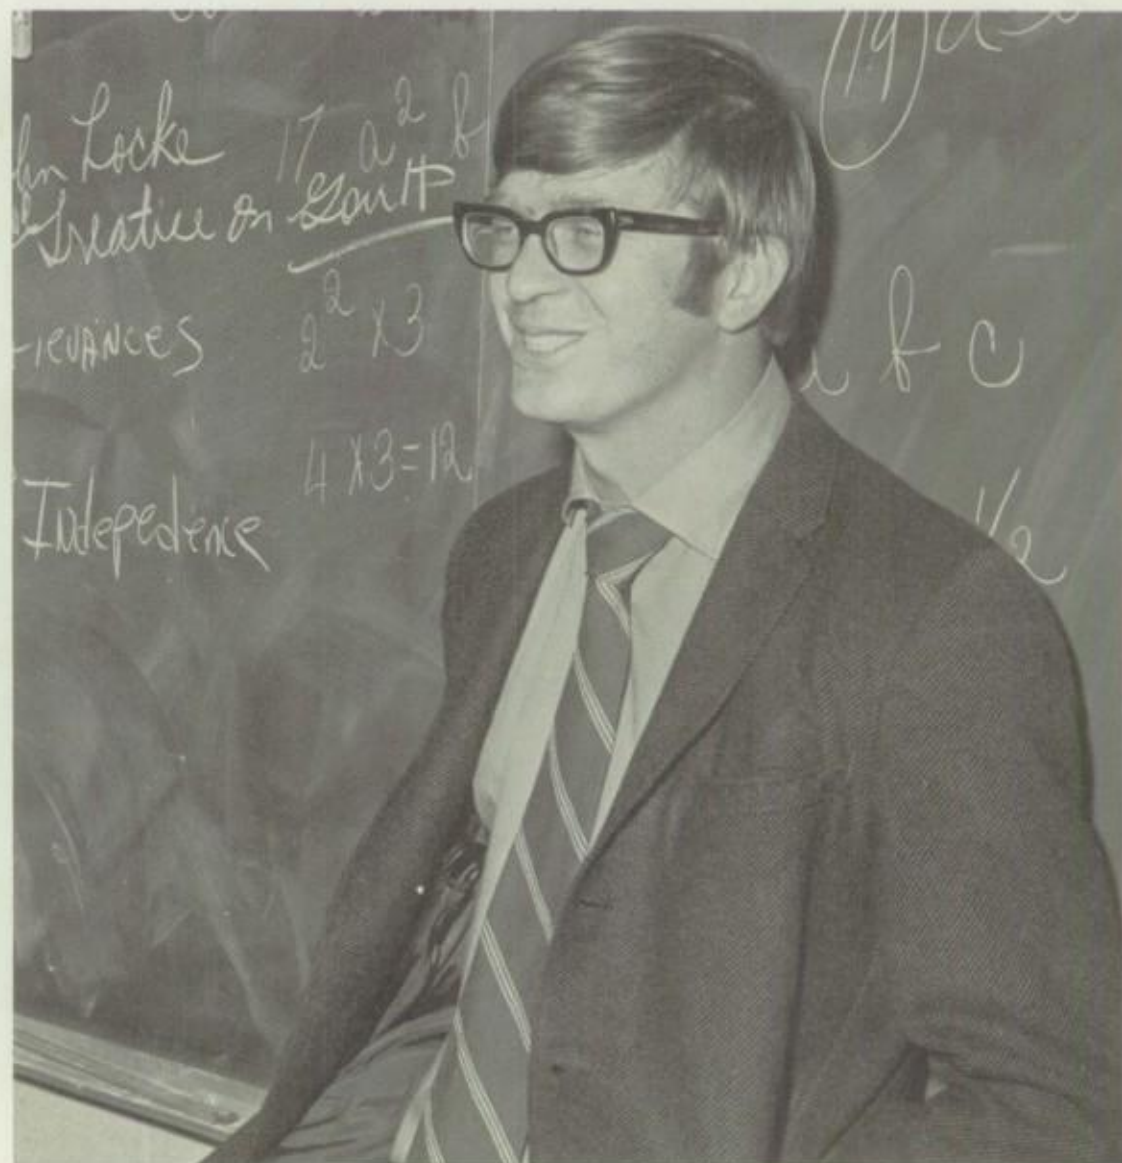

Our Home Economics department provides many Y.C. girls with the opportunity to demonstrate and improve their household dexterity. Their culinary and sartorial skills warrant high praise.

LEFT: Sister Regina Eleanor, I.H.M., B.S.

Fact as well as discussion play important roles in the Social Studies curriculum. We concentrate on the many valuable lessons which history can provide.

Art And Music

Through the medium of art, we are taught self-expression and creativity. Our Music and Art Departments are dedicated in their task of bringing out the Picasso and Beethoven in each of us.

LEFT TO RIGHT: Sister Regina Cecilia, I.H.M., B.Mus.; Mr. Alfoster Johnson, B.S.; Mrs. Marquerite Leppo.

We'd like to give a special thanks to all the people who serve our school in their particular field.

Football

York Catholic's 1971 football season came to an end on a winning note with an impressive victory over St. Francis Prep. But the season itself had not been as glorious as this game and Y.C.'s stunning victory over Kennard-Dale. There were major setbacks by such formidable foes as Bel-Air, Delone, and arch-rival Bishop McDevitt. Yet these losses were not able to suppress the spirit and style of Y.C. football. The Irish are still No. 1.

As defending Y.C.I.A.A. champions, this year's Golf team captured the Eastern Division crown with a 10-0 record in regular season matches. However, in the ensuing battle for the overall League championship, Y.C. fell before the Western Division champ, West York. Led by Seniors Mike Land, Denny O'Connor, Mick Ochs, Joe Renda and Juniors Bill Shorb, and Mike Angelo, and under the direction of Coach Sinkovitz, the team exhibited a winning spirit concomitant with most Y.C. fall sports.

Joe Fahey is the most successful (50-3-1 in four years) coach at Y.C. This year's Cross-Country team, led by Strine, McMenamin and Gutowski, gave him his most successful (16-0) season through tough county and invitational competition. Denied the league championship by the Y.C.I.A.A., the team nevertheless took fourth at both the Solanco and State Catholic meets, and shut out the Harrisburg Diocese to retain their champion status in that division.

Wrestling

The wrestling team enjoyed the most successful season in its brief history. Besides sporting a fine 13-1 record, they captured the Central Penn Catholic Wrestling crown. Individual goals were set as Y.C. sent seven wrestlers to the finals. Led by Joe Borsa, defending state champ, Mickey Ochs, John Ehehalt, Mike Byrnes, Greg Freeland, Kev McGowan and Jim Manning, all participated in the finals at Erie. The trip to Erie was made possible through the generous contributions of the student body and the Varsity Club.

ACTIVITIES

With a little help from the band, Mr. Johnson once again demonstrated his "Superstar" abilities by developing a top notch group of musicians. Through a spectacular half-time show with songs like, "Light Sings" and "My Sweet Lord," the determined Mr. J. showed our stunned opponents that "We've Only Just Begun!"

Color-Guard

The precision of our Color Guard is outstanding in the area. Long hours of practice go into each drill, but are well worth it, for watching them at work fills the Irish with pride.

BOTTOM RIGHT: Captain, Sue Chronister and Co-captain, Theresa Savard.

Twirlers

This year the Irish band front, headed by the Twirlers, was excellent. The halftime show they put together rivaled that of any opponent, as they twirled their way into our hearts.

Cheerleaders

Our pretty cheerleaders put forth a fantastic effort this year. They completed a successful drive to increase attendance at our games, proving to everyone that we love our Irish.

The Mixed Chorus boasts of 170 members. They perform in three concerts during the year and each spring produce a musical. This year's production is Carousel.

Debate

In past years, York Catholic has had several exceptional teams, this year is no exception. They have lived up to the tradition of excellence. They are Pat Huddleston, Jim O'Connor, Bob Eckenrode, and Dave Kettl.

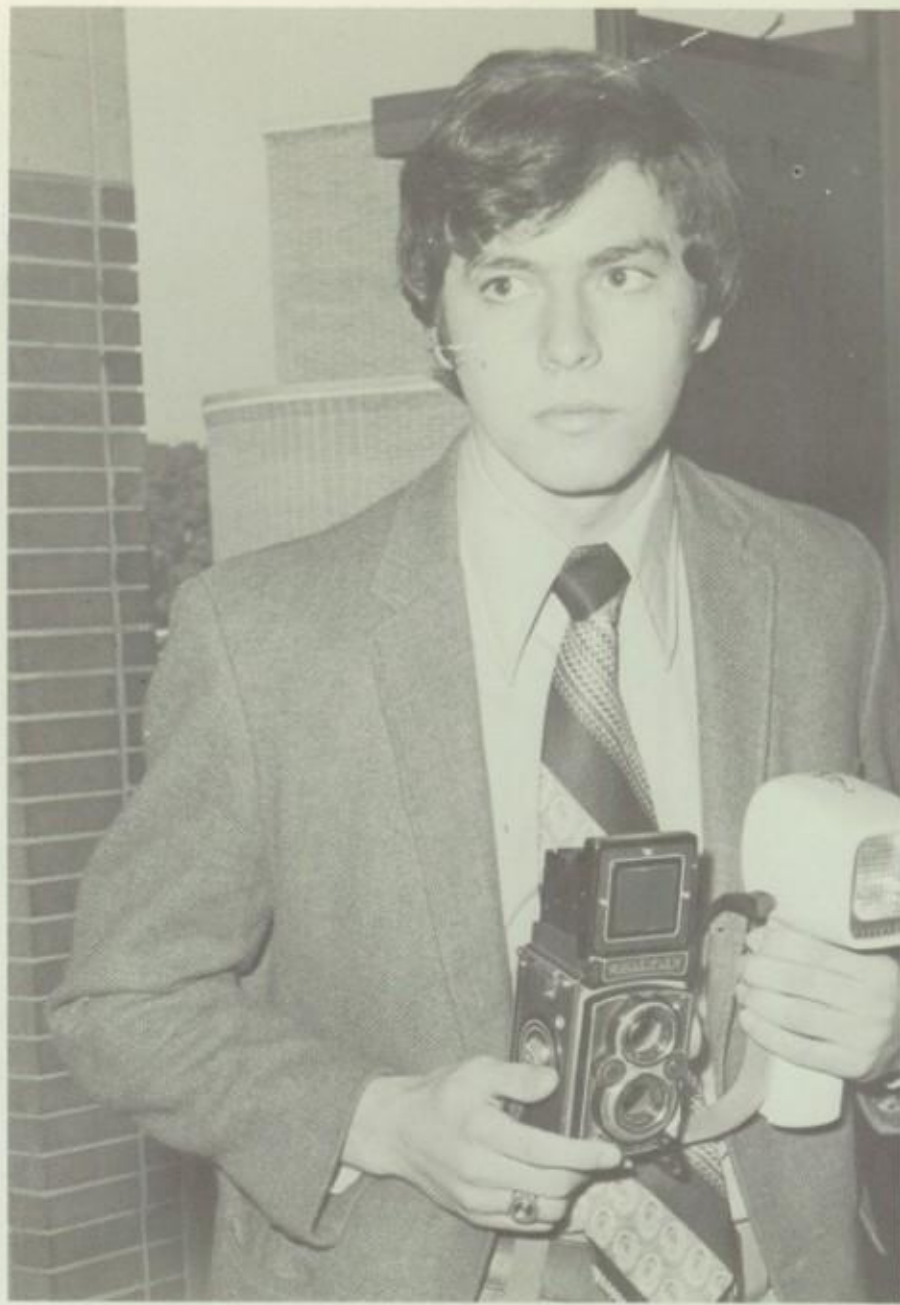

Moderator Sister Kathryn Gleeson has done an admirable job with York Catholic's Forensic team, with no little credit to the students, themselves. They have received very high honors this year. They can all be very proud, as we are proud of them. The art of public speaking is something that they will carry throughout their lives. Unlike the rest of us, they will never get "butterflies" when called upon to speak, but will be confident, and cool.

Rosa Mystica

The purpose of a yearbook is fulfilled in the future, when we look back and remember. The staff has kept this in mind all the way through the year.

The 1972 staff of Rosa Mystica was headed by Sue Torbush, as editor. Other editors are Mike Frey, photography; Marie Weisenrieder, layout; and Jim Cederburg, copy. Jane Rudisill handled the Senior Section, aided by other Senior staff members, Steve Stambaugh, Jim McMenemy, Steve Knapp, Beth Trout, Judy Kaufman, Deb Benkert, Marian Cavanaugh and Carol Tate. Underclassmen were Kim Yohe, Noreen Weber, Marianne Cook, Terry Cavanaugh, Dianne Crumbling, Marianne Ippolito, Pam Covey and Vickie Masek.

The entire staff wishes to thank Mrs. Reck for her time and effort as our moderator.

Also, a special Thanks to Rick Senft, who transferred to Connecticut his senior year, for the special cover design on the '72 Rosa Mystica.

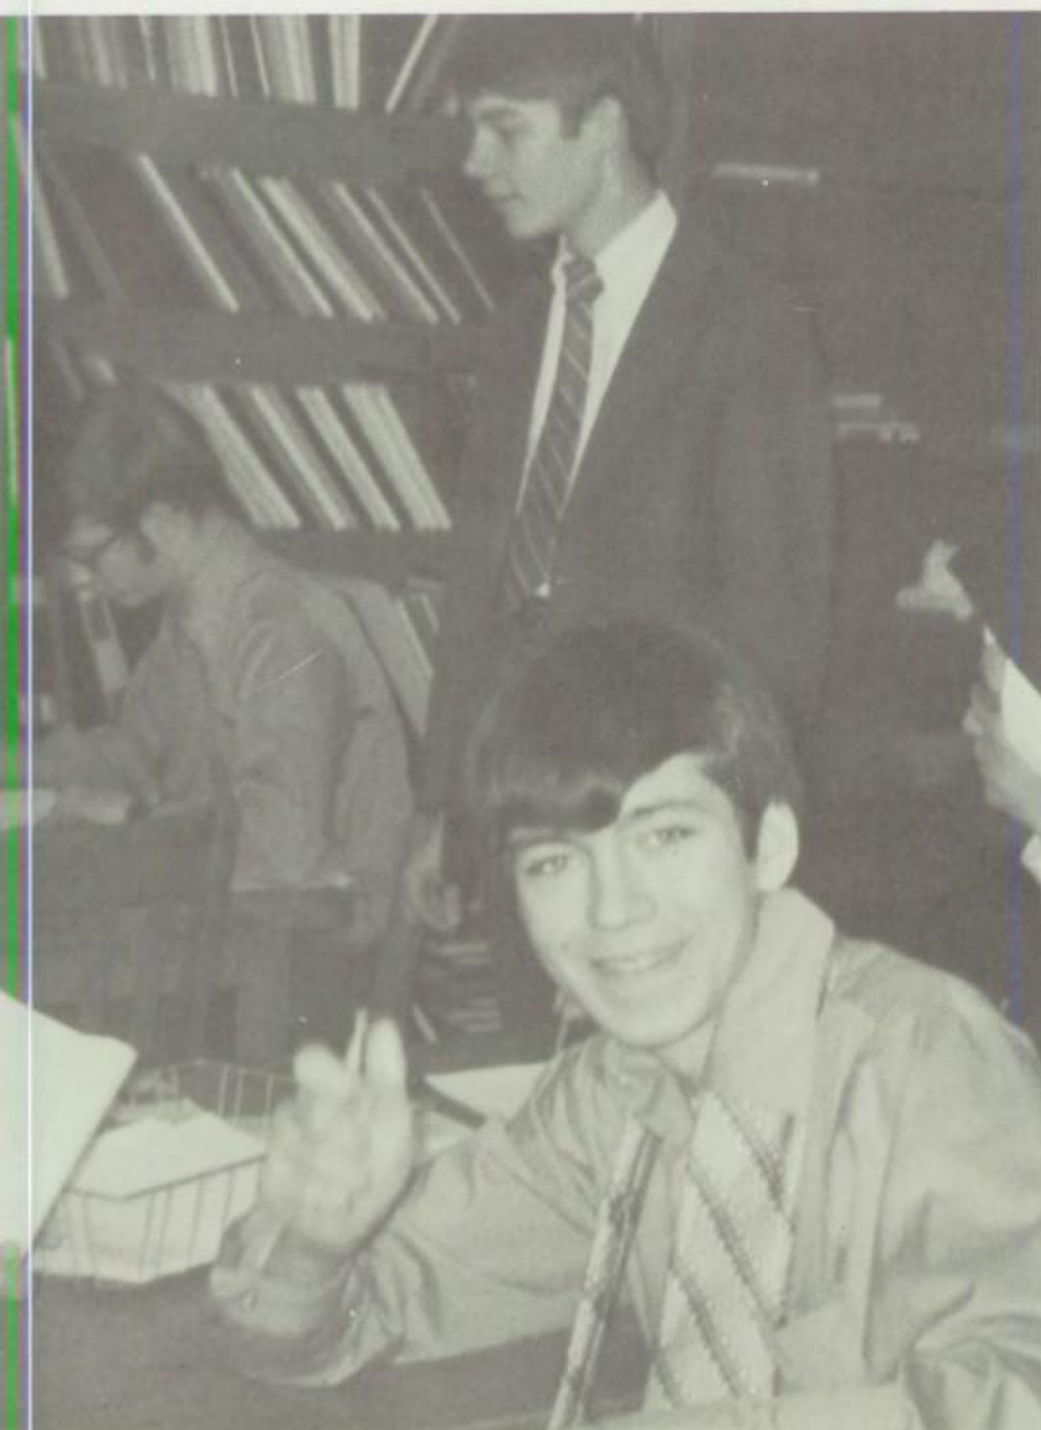

This year, as in the past, our newspaper, the Spectator was as successful as ever. The entire Student body looked forward to its debut every few weeks.

The staff members, along with their moderator, Sister Rose Dennis, worked tirelessly on their paper, and the effort showed.

Senior Staff members are Paul Kettle, Editor; Teri Andrews, Mary Jane Beazley, Claire Glock, Kathi Walsh, Karen Ceroy, Joe Debes and Ed Miller.

Special Service Clubs

These organizations help York Catholic to run more smoothly. Their services are gratefully used by every one of us.

At left, the new Future Nurses of America Club helps girls who are planning to go into Nursing know about the many opportunities open in that field, and the diverse areas of nursing by having guest speakers in to answer questions.

Below them is pictured the Library Aides, without whom the library would not be run as efficiently as it is. They learn their trade from Sr. Marcella.

The chapel aides, right, are indispensable in a Catholic School. Whenever we celebrate the Mass, they are responsible for the arrangements of the altar, and the sacred vessels used. Below are our Audio-Visual Aides men, better known as AVA. Without them, many a frantic teacher would have to abandon a worthwhile movie, or filmstrip. Whenever something is amiss with a machine, they are right there to fix it.

To all, a big "Thanks" from all of us.

THE MEET

TIME PASSES
MUCH TOO
QUICKLY . . .

... WHEN WE'RE TOGETHER,
LAUGHING

Sue Mayer doesn't need snow to go sleigh riding, just a hill and a friend. Is that Jackie De Vono hiding behind a deck of cards? Carla Campbell finds something very funny. Maybe it's what Mr. Dougherty has in his paper bag.

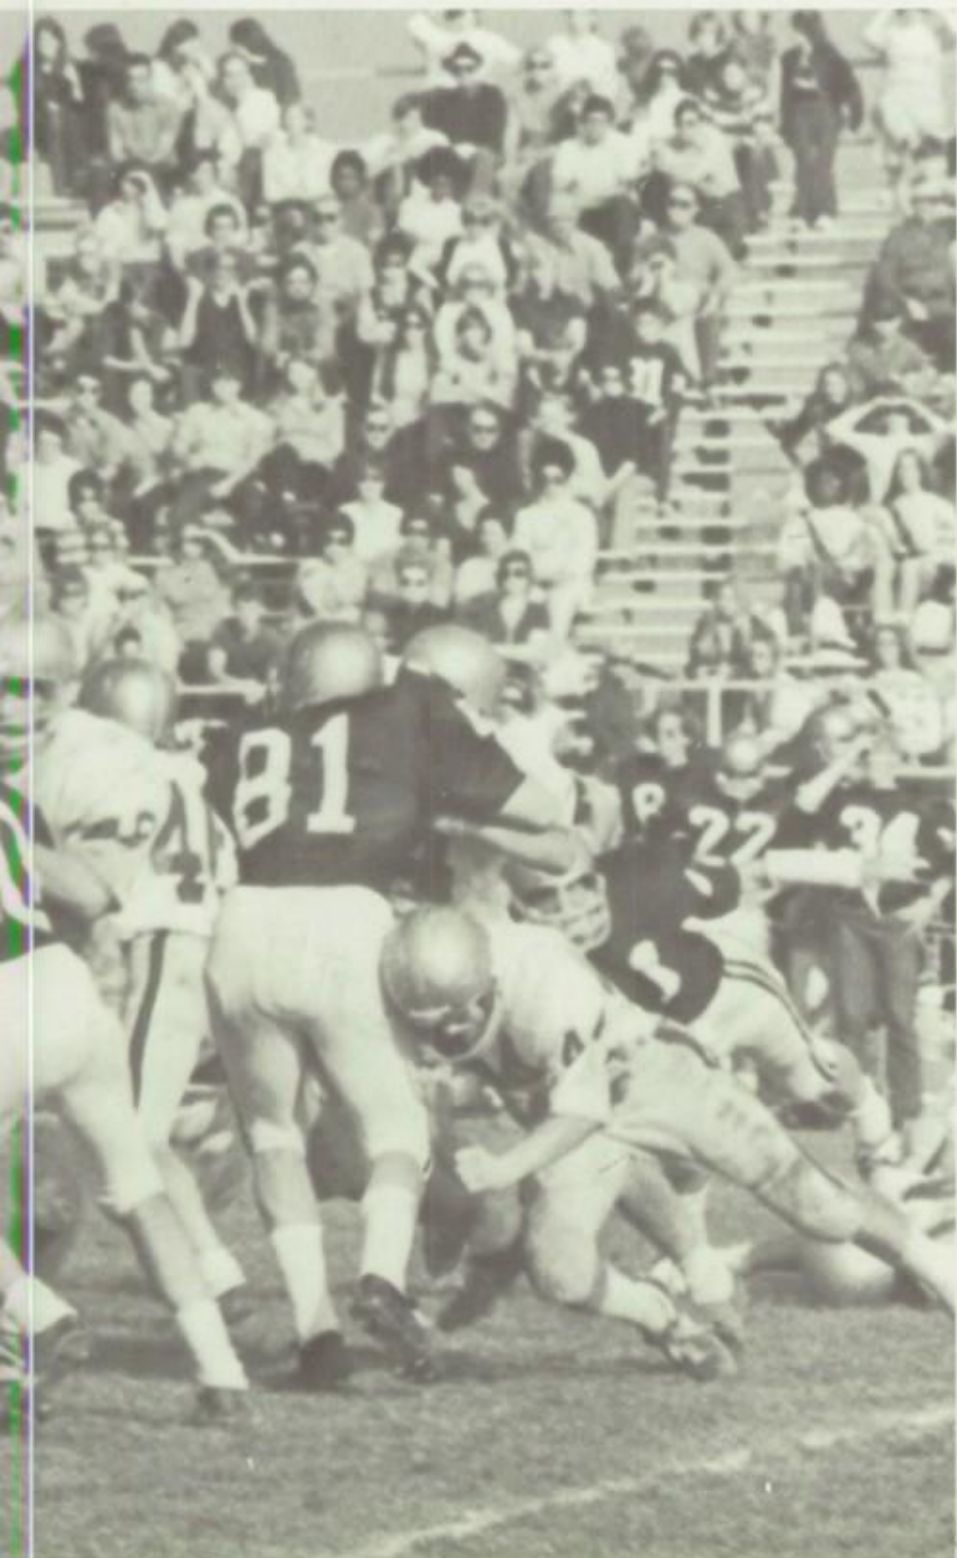

IT'S ONLY THE BEGINNING, ONLY JUST THE START

Only the beginning of I.S., but for "Kid" Wernig, it looks like the end. Bishop Daley is also just beginning with his first visit to Y.C.

Homecoming

Homecoming came just at the right time this year. Things were a little dead and the faculty was beginning to panic because evaluation was just around the corner. The game itself was a climax to all the rushing around before — float building, preparations for the dance and selection of the court. Ten senior girls were chosen. Above, Left to Right they are: Sue Chronister, Lisa Flinchbaugh, Queen, Luanne Hartman, Amy McGowan, Maureen O'Malley, Beth Read, Barb Welsh, Kathi Wolf, and Janet Zutell.

The Parade left St. Patrick's parking lot and traveled to Small's Field. Due to the late arrival at the field, the pre-game show was postponed until halftime. Just before the parade began there was a near catastrophe as the senior float capsized but was rescued by the Freshman Cheerleaders.

Under the direction of Sister Marguerite Denise, the production of The Diary of Ann Frank proved to be a fantastic success. The student acting fit very naturally into the life-like setting constructed by Mrs. Leppo and the Art Department and Mr. Spiese and his stage crew.

The Diary Of Ann Frank

Remember Thanksgiving? Every homeroom collected a Thanksgiving basket to make someone's holiday a little better. The Juniors sponsored a turkey sale to try to raise money for Y.C. Just about every family bought something. They appropriately presented their moderator, Mr. Fahey, with a real live turkey. Best of all, it snowed.

Thanksgiving

Christmas

Christmas was wonderful. The spirit of joy and love could be felt anywhere in the school. Everyone was in such a beautiful, giving mood that it felt good just to be a part of Y.C. The Yuletide spirit gave a beautiful feeling to our parali-turgical service and gift giving.

The Music Department came through again by giving us a moving concert, complete with a "Tannembaum."

Wanna Buy A Magazine?

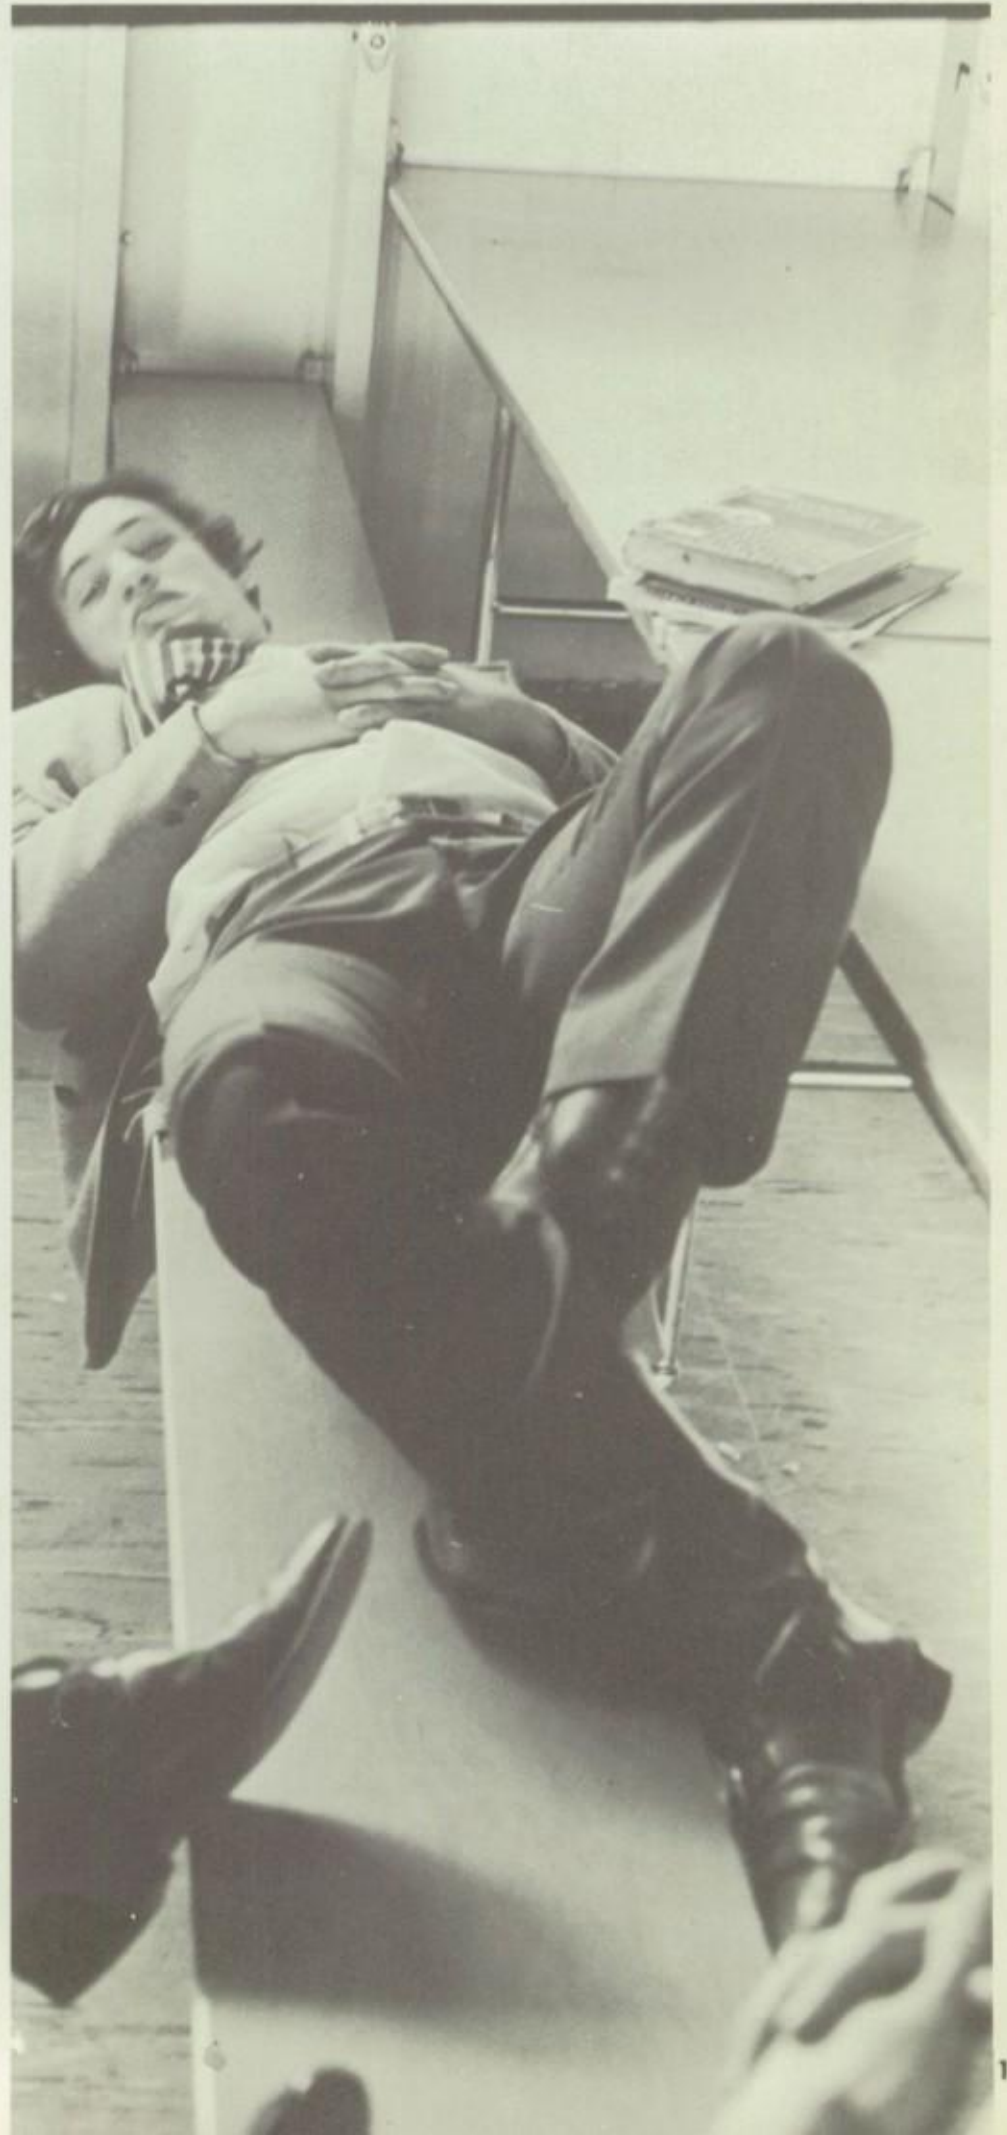

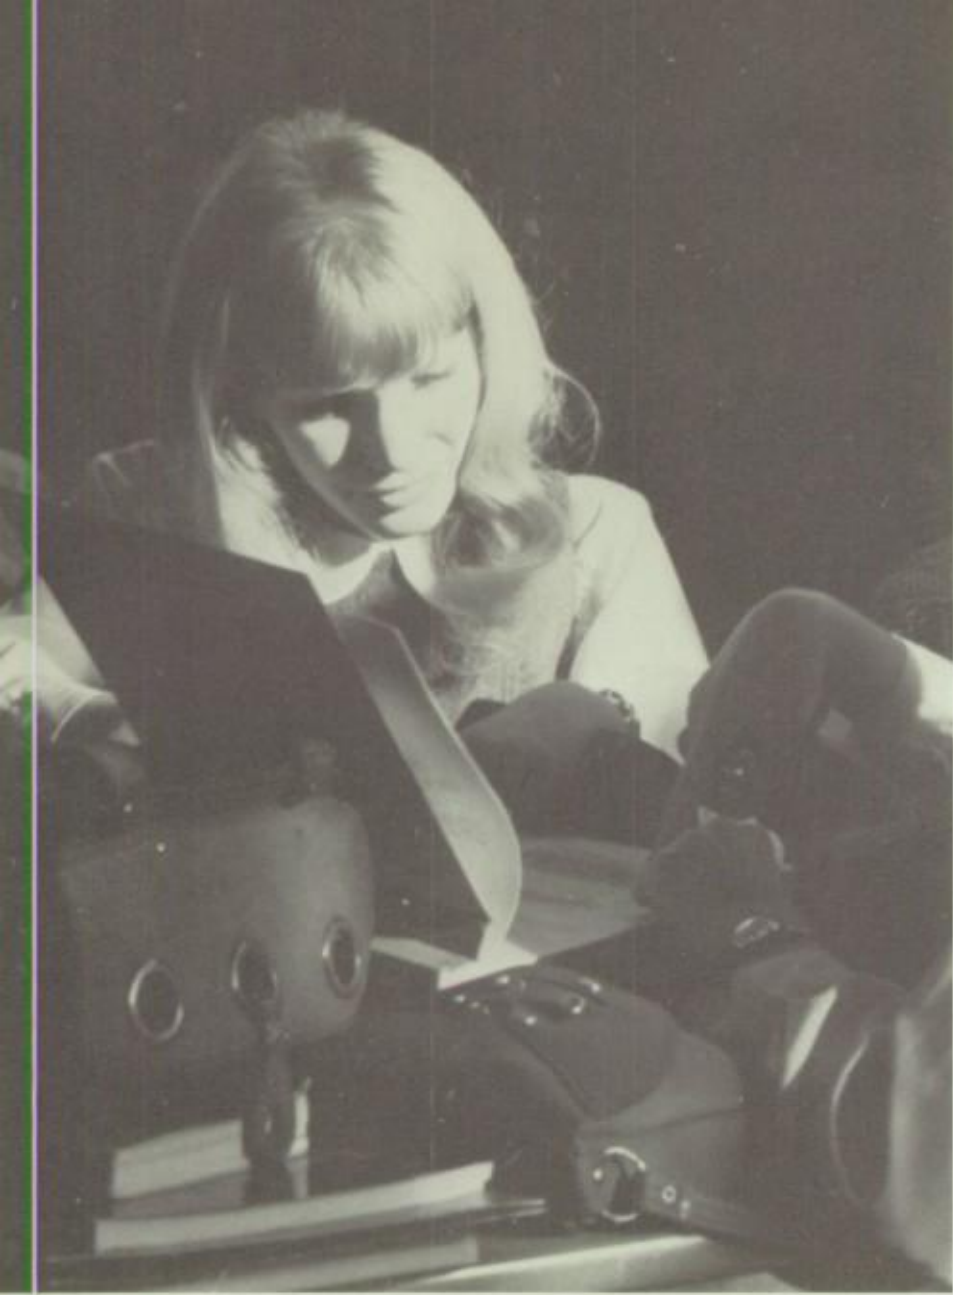

Mostly, I'm Silent. Silent.

Sometimes during the day, we just have to get away from all the pressure. For Jess Heindel, that means going to the stage to rehearse Carousel. Joe Borsa, Alex Krylowicz and others, turn to the Cafeteria. A few never really escape. Some days there is always a class.

... I Wish I Could Sing It To You

I wish I could sing it to you: tell you what this school, and all of you have meant to me. Whether we were trying to eat lunch, or clowning around, attempting pushups or just all together, it was always beautiful. But this is just the beginning for us, remember that, and never forget York Catholic, our home.
